

Merchants Fleet Management Continues Sales Growth

Hooksett, N.H. May 2018: Merchants Fleet Management is continuing to grow its sales team. The two newest members are Andrew Camp, and John “Rocky” Petrone. The move comes as part of Merchants Fleet Management’s commitment to double in size again over the next several years, as part of Merchants CEO Brendan P. Keegan’s multiyear plan.

Andrew Camp, in his role of Reginal Sales Manager, will cover central and northern California. Camp previously worked as the Vice President of Business Development at Donlen. Camp has a bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from Cal State University, San Bernardino and will report to Jeff Thomas, Director of Sales West Region

Also joining the Merchants team is Rocky Petrone. Petrone will lead the Merchants GuaranteedTRAC resale program. Petrone joins Merchants after six years with ARI. Petrone has an MBA from Drexel University, and is a 2002 graduate of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point. Rocky will report to Tom Coffey, VP of Sales & Marketing.

“We’re excited to welcome both Andrew and Rocky,” said Tom Coffey, Vice President of Sales and Marketing at Merchants Fleet Management. “Andrew will help strengthen our presence in California, and Rocky’s expertise is an invaluable asset. Both have proven track records, and their additions will help support our present and projected growth.”
